TV ONE AND AT&T U-VERSE EXTEND AGREEMENT FOR 11 MORE YEARS

TV One, a trusted storyteller with such signature series as “Unsung,” has established itself as voice of Black culture

SILVER SPRING, JULY 23, 2015 – TV One and AT&T U-verse today extended their agreement into 2026.

TV One is focused on African American viewers and features a distinctive array of award-winning original series, music specials, news and critically acclaimed original films. Among its best-known programs is the signature series, Unsung, which launched in November 2008. The music biography series, a four-time NAACP Image Awards winner, tells the stories of the greatest R&B and soul artists of our time. The show was an instant hit and helped define TV One as a trusted storyteller and voice of Black culture.

TV One also is the exclusive home of News One Now, the only live daily news program targeting Black viewers, and the prestigious NAACP Image Awards. The network recently expanded its programming lineup with the introduction of monthly original films slated throughout the year. It also will launch its newest and most anticipated scripted comedy, Born Again Virgin, next month.

“The extension of TV One’s renewal agreement with AT&T highlights the increasing value of the network, which continues to deliver record-breaking ratings driven by an array of compelling new original series, movies and specials,” said Michelle L. Rice, executive vice president, Content Distribution and Marketing, TV One. “Our renewal agreement drives home our mutual commitment to delivering high-quality content to AT&T customers. We are excited to continue our relationship with AT&T in serving this very important audience.”

“We are excited to be able to continue this relationship with TV One and renew our commitment to offering diverse programming to our customers,” said Ryan Smith, vice president of Content, AT&T U-verse. “This agreement is a win for AT&T U-verse customers.”

TV One is available on channel 157 and 1157 in HD in the U200 package and above.

About TV One

Launched in January 2004, TV One (www.tvone.tv) serves 57 million households, offering a broad range of real-life and entertainment-focused original programming, classic series, movies and music designed to entertain and inform a diverse audience of adult Black viewers. The network is the exclusive home of News One Now, the only live daily news program targeting Black viewers. In December 2008, the company launched TV One High Def, which now serves 14 million households. TV One is solely owned by Radio One [NASDAQ: ROIA and ROIK, www.radio-one.com], the largest radio company that primarily targets Black and urban listeners.
